

Beetle Detail ...

<< Back to Catalog

Manticora scabra. Klug.

Family: Cicindelidae. Manticora.
From: Mozambique, Transvaal & Zimbabwe.
Size: 55-59mm

One of our Giant Tiger Beetles. From the Colin R. Owen collection.

I have duplicates for sale

Click on the small picture below to see it large above!

Showing

© 2005 Beetles of Africa, all Rights reserved

- Home
- Beetle Family Catalog
- Search the Beetles
- Special Beetles
- More about us
- Contact us
- Links
- Books

Did you know?

Insects are an excellent source for scientific study.

The remarkable diversity in form and function of commonly-found insects promote interest and enthusiasm in observing the natural world.

Insects can model scientific principles, or simply be used for enjoyment.